

CAMPBELL, Georgia

CAMPBELL, Georgia, of Middletown age 79, passed away Wednesday, December 21, 2005 at Middletown Hospital of heart failure. She was born in Hamilton, Ohio, August 24, 1926 to Herbert and Ellen Miley.

As the wife of a Navy man, Georgia spent most of her life traveling the country with her family. She had many vocations in her life, and she loved her family, cooking, reading and traveling. Georgia was known most for her infectious laugh. She was preceded in death by her parents, sisters, Merle Lindsay and Tena Ray, and her son, Oren "Butch" Campbell III. Survived by daughters, Jackie (J.T.) Maher of Middletown and Tena (Tom) Swann of Hamilton; daughter-in-law, Marcia Campbell of Simi Valley CA; brother, Bert (Rosemary) Miley of Winston-Salem, NC; seven grandchildren: Steve Campbell, Tracy Allen, Jessica Abbott, Rachel Allen, Samantha Campbell, Brian Swann, George Swann; 6 great grandchildren; and many friends including those at her home, the Dublin House in Middletown.

Private services will be held for family and friends on Monday, December 26, 2005. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Mrs. Campbell's name to The American Heart Association, 105 McKnight Drive, Middletown OH 45044.
